QUEBEC---ABSTRACT OF COLLECTION LAWS, ETC.

ALIENS.—An alien becomes a British subject by conforming to special requirements which, at present, are found in the Federal Statute of 1914, 4 and 5 George V. chap. 44. An alien woman is naturalized by marriage with a British subject. Aliens may acquire and transmit by onerous or gratuitous title, as well as by succession or by will, both moveable or immovable property. They may sue and be sued; but every person not resident in the Province of Quebec, who brings or institutes any proceedings in its Courts, must give and produce a power of attorney, and give to the opposite party security for costs.

ARREST AND IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.—As to arrests under criminal law for acts done in fraud of creditors, see this title under Laws of Ontario. Properly speaking, imprisonment for debt does not exist in this Province; but where a personal debt for $50.00 or upwards has been created, or is made payable in Quebec or Ontario, plaintiff may obtain a writ of capias against the debtor in any of three cases: (1) When the defendant is about to leave the Province of Quebec and Ontario with intent to defraud his creditors in general, or the plaintiff in particular, and the latter thereby will be deprived of his recourse against the defendant; (2) When the defendant, with similar intent and result, is secreting or making away with his property, or has done so, or is immediately about to do so; or (3) When the defendant being a trader has ceased his payments and has refused to make a judicial abandonment of his property for the benefit of his creditors, although duly required to do so.—A capias does not generally lie against ministers of religion, septuagenarians or women. The writ of capias, which may only issue upon an affidavit by the plaintiff, his book-keeper, clerk, or legal attorney, setting forth the required personal debt as well as the existence of one or more of the above grounds, may be joined to the writ of summons or may issue as an incident in the case or after judgment ordering payment. The law provides means for release of defendant on bail.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any creditor for $200 and over, whose claim is unsecured, may make a demand on a debtor to make an assignment or abandonment. If debtor who has ceased his payments refuses to abandon or assign his property he may be compelled to do so by a writ of opias. The assignment is made to the Court, the effect is that the debtor is dispossessed and a provisional guardian is named and a meeting of creditors called to appoint a curator; the court appointing curator, as a rule, on the vote of the majority of creditors in number and value, of those present or represented, who have filed sworn claims. The curator or trustee realizes assets, and divides the proceeds among creditors, but the debtor is not discharged by such assignment. Creditors accepting the dividend may still retain claim versus debtor for balance.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments before judgment issue on production of affidavit that debtor is about to abscond, or secrete goods with a view to defeat or defraud his creditors. The debt must be a personal debt exceeding $5.00, the affidavit by same persons and set forth the same grounds as for capias (see title Arrest & Imprisonment for debt) except as to amount.

CHATEL MORTGAGES.—There are no such instruments known to the law in Quebec. If a debtor wishes to secure a debt by pledge, he must deliver them absolutely to the creditor or to a third party for the benefit of the creditor. Joint Stock Companies, when authorized by their charter, may pledge their moveable assets to secure their bonds and still remain in possession of said assets. Under the Bank Act, banks may obtain liens which have practically the same effect as a chattel mortgage.

COMMISSIONS.—Commissions for the taking of evidence outside the Province of Quebec may issue from the Circuit Court and Superior Court.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—The courts recognize and protect contracts, whereby the thing sold remains the property of the unpaid vendor, until all instalments of the sale price have been paid. This applies to contracts in use with regard to the sale of machinery, sewing machines, pianos and other articles of that kind on time, with payments by instalments. In cases arising out of such contracts, the courts here have held that the vendor had a right, on the failure of the person to whom the article was sold, to recover back his machine or article, or whatever it may be, against the claims of the creditors of the purchaser upon return of moneys unless dealers stipulated in contract that moneys paid would be considered as rent for use.

CONTRACTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.—A wife who is a public trader, may, without the authorization of her husband, obligate herself for all that relates to her commerce, and in such case she also binds her husband if there be community between them. A wife cannot bind herself either with or for her husband if not common as to property and then only as being common as to property.

COSTS.—In personal actions in which the amount demanded or the amount for which judgment is rendered does not exceed twenty-five dollars, no fee shall be granted against the defendant, who can only be condemned to pay the fees of the clerk and the costs of service of the action, except in the following cases:

1. Where the action is contested;
2. Where the action is, or is accompanied by a provisional measure, and such action or provisional measure is declared well founded by the judgment.

3. Where the action is for the recovery of a penalty, or is founded on an infraction of a statute, or upon an offence or quasi offence, or is for the recovery of wages or salary, or of an alimetary allowance, or of municipal or school taxes or assessments or other dues of the same kind, or of tithes, or assessments for the construction or repair of churches, parsonage houses, and cemeteries.

The same rule applies to seizures and to executions in virtue of judgments to which this article applies.

EXECUTION.—Execution can only issue fifteen days after judgment in ordinary cases, and eight days in summary cases, unless cause is shown by plaintiff that defendant is making away with his property, when he can procure its issue immediately. Where the judgment is entered for goods sold and delivered or upon promissory notes, etc., the execution may issue eight days after judgment. Execution can only be stayed by opposition of defendant, supported by affidavit which can be filed on the ground of informalities in seizure, or seizures of goods of third party though in possession of defendant. Case tried in the ordinary way, to test these rights: takes from two to three months.

EXEMPTIONS.—The exemptions from execution are beds, bedding and bedstead, ordinary use by debtor and his family, necessary wearing apparel, one stove and pipes, and a number of smaller articles not to exceed $50 in value. All necessary fuel, meat, vegetables, fish, flour not more than sufficient for ordinary consumption of debtor and family for three months; one cow, four sheep, two hogs and food therefor for thirty days; tools and implements of, or chattels ordinarily used in debtor's occupation, not to exceed $200 in value; a homestead in certain cases.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—Commercial Corporations and Joint Stock Companies not created by the Legislature of this Province, or of the late Province of Lower Canada, or of the late Province of Canada, are known as extra provincial corporations with the exception of (a) certain loan and investment societies; (b) insurance companies, mutual benefit and charitable societies; and (c) corporations created under an Act of the Legislature of another Canadian Province where Quebec corporations may do business without being obliged to take out a license. No extra provincial corporation may carry on business here without a license, nor may the representative of such corporation other than a traveller taking orders for it, carry on any of its business unless such license has been obtained and is in force. The license is obtained on petition to the Lieutenant-Governor, on fulfilment of certain requirements, among other, deposit of a certified copy of charter and of a power of attorney. Like every other, these extra provincial corporations must, within 60 days after commencing business here, deliver to the Prothonotary of the Superior Court in each district, or to the Registrar of each registration division in which it carries on business, a written declaration as to the name, manner and date of incorporation, and principal place of business here. These declarations are entered in the books kept for registration of partnerships by the Prothonotary and Registrar. A fine is imposed on the Company, and on the President, Manager or chief Agent, for failure to make the declaration. Neither local nor foreign corporations can acquire immovable property without the consent of the Crown. However, a company incorporated and existing in Great Britain, including the United States and the Isle of Man, the United States and Canada, may acquire land in this Province without such consent, but only for actual occupation by it for the purpose of carrying on business. Where more than this is required by a corporation, a license from the Lieutenant-Governor may be obtained on payment of fees.

HOLIDAYS.—Sundays, New Year's Day, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Ascension, All Saints, Conception, Christmas, the Birthday of the Sovereign, or the day fixed by proclamation for its celebration, the 24th of May being Victoria Day, and 1st of July, and any day fixed by the Governor-General or Lieutenant-Governor as a public holiday, as a day of general fast or thanksgiving, or as labor day are legal holidays. Negotiable paper falling due on those days or on a Sunday due only the day after and must be protested then.

INTEREST.—Interest may be charged when defendant has promised to pay it, or when a usage or course of dealing has been proved under which defendant has been in the habit of paying interest. When a date has been fixed or payment of an amount in commercial matters, interest runs from that date. When no rate agreed upon legal rate is 5 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments may be obtained at any time in default cases, but if the defendant appears by attorney, judgment cannot be entered between July 1st and August 31st; but in commercial matters such as notes or open accounts, defendant must file a plea or an affidavit that he has a serious defense. Judgments may be obtained where no defense interposed in eight or nine days, and in both courts one extra day must be allowed for every fifty miles that defendant lives from the place where the court is held, over and above the first fifty miles. In case of an absentee defendant, he may be called by advertisement in the newspapers, if defendant has not appeared. Special provisions relating to action based upon commercial contracts are designed to expedite the trial and judgment therein. A judgment is good for thirty years. No judgment notes are allowed in Quebec.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.—Circuit Court up to $100; Superior Court all amounts above $100; notes and commercial accounts are outlawed in five years.

LICENSES.—No law exists in this Province requiring commercial travelers to take out a license.

LIENS IN FAVOR OF BANKS authorized by the Laws of the Dominion of Canada. (See this title under the Laws of Ontario. The law is a general one applicable to all the Provinces of the Dominion.)

MECHANICS' LIEN.—The (1) Workman, including everyone who earns living by manual labor, (2) the supplier of materials of every kind entering into the construction, (3) the builder including both constructor and sub-constructor, and (4) the architect, have a privilege on an immovable to the extent to which they have increased its value. The workman's privilege covers 20 days of arrears and lasts without being registered for 30 days after the end of work, i. e., after the construction is ready for intended use; but the privilege is extinguished on failure to sue within such delay. However, the workman employed by the contractor has no direct action against the owner (C. C. 1897). The privilege of the supplier of materials is effective only on registration of a notice given to the proprietor stating the nature and costs of materials to be supplied and the cadastral number of lot. Such privilege is extinguished on failure to sue the debtor within 30 days from the end of the work. (C. C. 2213 to 2213-f). The privilege of the builder, or the architect, is conditional on its being registered within 30 days from the end of the work and on notice of registration in same delay to the proprietor. The privilege is lost after six months from same date unless an action be taken to preserve it. The action is served on Registrar, on whose certificate it will appear. All these, except the privilege of "the workman", are created by registration, within the proper delay, of an affidavit (2103). On expiration of 6 months from registration or "end of work" (which ever is the latest) without suit to preserve the privilege, a creditor on written application and affidavit may require the Registrar to radiate or cancel such privilege. (C. C. 2103 s. 4).

PARTNERSHIPS.—In partnerships for trading, manufacturing or mechanical purposes, or for the construction of roads, dams and bridges, or of settlements, or of land traffic, within sixty days after formation, the partners must deliver to the Prothonotary for each district, and to the Registrar of each County in which the partnership carries on business, a declaration in writing in the form provided by statute, giving names in full, residence, etc. of each partner, and the name and style of the partnership. A penalty is imposed for non-compliance. A similar declaration must be filed whenever there is a change in the partnership or in the name. No partner is deemed to have ceased to be such until a new declaration has been filed stating the alteration or dissolution of the partnership. Every married person trading alone or in partnership, to avoid penalties, must register, in the office of the Prothonotary within said delay of 60 days, a written declaration stating whether he is common or separate as to property, etc., with full particulars as to contract or judgment. A similar declaration must be made by any person carrying on business alone under a firm name. When any person makes use in business of a name not his own, every contract, letter, etc., etc., which he issues, must bear the word "registered" after such name. A declaration in same delay must be transmitted to the Prothonotary by everyone not in partnership who uses alone, or with his own name as his business style, some name not his own, who uses his name and adds "and Company" or other form indicating plurality of members. The declaration must state among other information that no other person is associated with the declarant. New declarations in conformity with any changes must be made. An actual partner, though not mentioned in the declaration may be sued jointly and severally with those mentioned. Service process at the office or place of business of the partnership here has the same effect as service on the partners personally, and a judgment for a partnership debt may be enforced against the partnership property. In commercial partnerships the partners are jointly and severally liable for the debts. In others not commercial, the partners are liable in equal shares, although their respective shares be unequal. Commercial partnerships are of four kinds: (1) general, (2) anonymous, (3) limited, and (4) Joint Stock Companies. Under the first, with respect to third persons dealing in good faith, each partner has an implied power to bind the partnership for all obligations in its name in the usual course of business. During the continuance of a general commercial partnership, dormant or unknown partners are liable to third parties in the ordinary course of business. Partners and nominal partners and persons who give reasonable cause for belief that they are partners are liable to third parties in good faith. As to anonymous partnerships, the above rules apply in regard to the liabilities of partners towards third parties. Limited partnerships consist of one or more general partners, and one or more special partners, the latter contributing in cash a specific sum to the capital beyond which sum they are not liable. The general partners only can bind the partnership. The partners are bound to sign in the presence of a notary the certificate prescribed by article 1875 of the Civil Code, containing in effect the same information as required in Ontario. (See this title under Laws of Ontario.) The certificate must be filed with the same officials as in case of the other partnerships as above mentioned. Until this is done the partnership is not deemed to be formed. If the certificate contains a false statement, all become liable as in a general partnership. Any partnership otherwise renewed than by filing a new certificate is deemed a general partnership. Every alteration in the name of the general partnership, in the nature of the business, in the capital or shares, etc., etc., mentioned in the certificate, other than the names of special partners, is deemed a dissolution of the limited partnership, and, if it is carried over afterwards, it is deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as above stated. If the name of a special partner be used in the firm with his privacy, he is deemed a general partner. The special partner must not receive more than lawful interest, and he may receive this only provided such payment does not reduce original amount of capital; he may also receive his share of the profits.

SALES OF STOCK IN BULK.—This means any sale or transfer of a stock in trade or of merchandise, including transfer of license certificates, made directly or indirectly, whether sale is of the whole or nearly the whole, or whether only of an interest in the business. Before complete or partial payment the purchaser shall obtain an affidavit from the seller or his agent, or from the president, secretary or manager where the seller is a company, as far as possible in the form following article 1569-e of the Civil Code, and containing information similar to the statutory declaration required in Ontario. (See this title under Laws of Ontario.) Failure to obtain this affidavit has same effect in invalidating the sale as in Ontario (same reference). Article 1569-d of the Civil Code provides in effect that on receiving the affidavit, the buyer must pay the creditors named in it out of the price ratably, according to contracts and having regard to privileges. When creditors are absent from the Province, or in case of contestation, on giving notice in the latter case, the buyer may deposit price in the hands of the Provincial Treasurer in conformity with sections 1484 to 1486 R. S. Q., 1909. The Provincial Treasurer pays on judgment. If after having received the affidavit the buyer fails to observe the requirements of C. C. 1569-d, he becomes personally liable to the creditors named in the affidavit for the sums opposite their names respectively.

VERIFICATION OF ACCOUNTS.—No verification is needed; accounts if not contested, may be proved by affidavits taken even outside the Province of Quebec, by competent persons; to wit, commissioners specially appointed for that purpose by judges of the Province of Quebec, etc., and accounts contested, and other claims contested or not, must be proved out of mouth of defendant or by witnesses examined in Court or under commission, if the witnesses reside outside of the Province, or even within the Province at a distance of more than one hundred miles from the place where the Court is held. As to the admission of verbal testimony the rules of the Statute of Frauds apply.

SASKATCHEWAN---ABSTRACT OF COLLECTION LAWS, ETC.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Preferential assignments will be set aside when the assignment is attacked within sixty days of its date, or where the assignor makes an assignment for the general benefit of his creditors within sixty days from the date of the assignment, the same will be presumed preferential. Assignments for the general benefit of the creditors may be made for the purpose of paying all creditors their just debts, rateably and proportionately without preference or priority. Such an assignment must be made to a Trust Company duly authorized to transact such business within the Province. Such assignment must be registered with the Registration Clerk of the district in which the assignor resides or else in the district in which the principal part of the property assigned is situated. The debtor is entitled to retain all property exempt from seizure under execution. There is no bankruptcy law.

ATTACHMENT OF DEBTS OR GARNISHMENTS.—The creditor may after action is brought for a debt or liquidated demand and either before or after judgment attach debts owing the defendant by means of garnishment. Garnishee summons is obtained on filing affidavit showing the amount and value of the claim and swearing positively to the indebtedness of the defendant to the plaintiff and stating belief of indebtedness of the proposed garnishee. If debt is due to the defendant for wages it is exempt from attachment unless it exceeds $25, and then only to the extent of such excess. No exemption when debt sued for is contracted for board and lodging.

ATTACHMENT FOR PERSONAL PROPERTY.—After the commencement of any suit wherein the claim is for the recovery of a debt of $50 or upwards from the defendant to the plaintiff, upon affidavit made by the plaintiff or agent having personal knowledge stating clearly and succinctly from what cause such debt arose and the amount thereof, and that he has good reasons to believe (giving the reasons thereof) that the defendant (a) is about to abscond or has absconded from the Province leaving personal property liable to seizure under execution or (b) has attempted to remove such personal property out of the Province or to sell or dispose of the same with intent to defraud his creditors generally or the plaintiff in particular; (c) keeps concealed to avoid service of process and (d) in either case that the deponent verily believes that without the benefit of the attachment the plaintiff will lose his debt or sustain damage; and upon the further affidavit of one other credible person that he is well acquainted with the defendant and verifying the facts as above, writ of attachment may issue against all the personal property and effects of the defendant liable to seizure, and in any case where the defendant has absconded leaving no wife or family behind, no property of such defendant is exempt from seizure.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND PROMISSORY NOTES.—These are governed by the Laws of the Dominion as to days of grace, protest and notice. Interest must be expressed at a certain rate per centum per annum and not per month, week or day, otherwise only 5 per cent. per annum is collectible. If no interest is stipulated, interest at 5 per cent. runs from the date of maturity only. After maturity, notes, etc., bear interest at 5 per cent. unless otherwise expressly stated.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—May be given to secure an existing debt, future advances or to secure a mortgage against endorsements of bills or notes, etc. The future advances must not extend over a longer period than two years. Growing or future crops may be mortgaged only to secure the price of seed grain, and crop must be sown within one year. Chattel mortgage must be accompanied by affidavit of due execution and affidavit of bona fides, and must be registered in the office of the Registration Clerk of the Judicial District in which mortgaged property is situated, within thirty days; they are valid for two years from filing, but renewal can be filed within thirty days before the expiration of such two years and then thirty days before the expiration of each year thereafter. All assignments by retail merchants or traders of book debts or debts to be incurred must be in writing and executed and registered under the provisions of the Bills of Sale Act. Chattel mortgages must be carefully drawn and in strict compliance with the Act, otherwise they are liable to be set aside.

EXECUTIONS.—Executions are good for two years, but may be renewed for a further period of two years from time to time, until judgment expires at the end of twelve years. Execution against lands can only be issued when the amount due on the judgment is $50 or more, and are only registered in that Land Registration District to whom the writ is directed. The lands of the judgment debtor may be seized and sold after the expiration of one year from the date of delivery of the writ to the Sheriff, and in case the land of the debtor is exempt under the Exemption Act the memorandum of the execution is endorsed on the title and is a latent charge against the land; that is, the land can be sold at any time that it ceases to be exempt under the Exemption Act. There is no priority among execution creditors, all sharing rateably.

EXEMPTIONS.—The following real and personal property of an execution debtor and his family is exempt from seizure under execution: (1) Necessary and ordinary clothing of himself and family; (2) furniture, dairy utensils, swine and poultry to the extent of $500; (3) necessary food for his family during six months, which may include grain and flour or vegetables and meat, either prepared or on foot; (4) four oxen, horses or mules or any four of them, six cows, six sheep, three pigs and fifty domestic fowls, besides the animals chosen for food purposes and food for same for the winter months; (5) harness for four animals, one wagon or two carts, one mower, a cradle and scythe, one breaking and one cross-plow, one set of harrows, one horse rake, sewing machine, binder, set of sleighs and seed drill; (6) books of professional men; (7) the tools and necessary implements used by the debtor in the practice of his trade or profession to the value of $200; (8) seed grain sufficient to seed all his land under cultivation not exceeding eighty acres at the rate of two bushels per acre and fourteen bushels of potatoes; (9) the homestead, provided it does not exceed 160 acres. In case it be more, the surplus may be sold subject to any liens or encumbrances thereon; (10) house and buildings occupied by the execution debtor and also the lot or lots on which the same are situate to the extent of $1,500. The debtor is entitled to his choice from a greater number of articles of the same class, and except for food, clothing and bedding, the subject matter of the judgment upon which execution is issued is not exempt. There is no exemption in the case of an absconding debtor leaving no wife or family. Interest may be recovered on written agreement after date of maturity and on open accounts from and after demand of payment and notice that interest will be charged if account be not paid. The legal rate is 5 per cent. (See Executions).

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments may be entered in default of appearance when the claim is for liquidated debt, twenty days after service when the defendant resides in the Province. Judgments are good for twelve years from the date of entry, but are of no effect to bind either goods or lands of the debtor until an execution is issued and filed with the Sheriff in which district the defendant has goods or lands.

LIEN NOTES AND HIRE RECEIPTS.—When goods to the value of $15 or upwards are sold and possession parted with, but the ownership or right of property does not pass to the buyer until payment in full, the agreement must be in writing, otherwise it is void as against execution creditors, purchasers for value, etc.; such agreement or a true copy thereof with affidavit of bona fides, must be registered in the office of the proper Registration Clerk within thirty days. But nothing in the Conditional Sales Act applies to the sale of any manufactured goods which at the time of delivery have the manufacturer's or vendor's name painted or stamped upon them, if such manufacturer or vendor keeps an office in Saskatchewan where information in reference to such sale may be obtained.

LIENS IN FAVOR OF BANKS authorized by the Laws of the Dominion of Canada. (See this title under the Laws of Ontario. The law is a general one applicable to all the Provinces of the Dominion.)

LIMITATIONS.—All actions for recovery of merchants' accounts, bills, notes and all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or other contract not under seal, shall be commenced within six years after the cause of such action arose; to recover any sum of money secured by mortgage, judgment or lien or otherwise charged upon or payable out of any lands or rent, action must be commenced within twelve years next after a present right to receive the same shall have accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for or release of the same, but for other debts due under other sealed instruments, within twenty years. An acknowledgment of a debt or a promise to pay sufficient to revive the debt must be in writing and signed by the party chargeable.

MARRIED WOMEN.—Every married woman shall be capable of acquiring, holding and disposing of by will or otherwise and without her husband's consent, any real or personal property whensoever acquired. She may in all respects deal with such property as if she were a feme sole. She continues liable for her anti-nuptial debts and the husband is only liable for such debts to the extent of the property he receives from her. She has no right to dower property so called but a husband cannot transfer, sell, lease or convey any interest in his homestead being the land exempt from seizure under the Execution Act, unless such transfer or other document is signed by his wife and her name must be signed before certain officials, usually a Justice of the Peace who examines her apart from her husband and takes her acknowledgment that she understands her rights in the homestead and executes the instrument voluntarily. On the death of her husband who leaves a will by the terms of which she would receive less than if he had died intestate leaving a widow and children, the wife may apply to the Supreme Court for relief and if she has been guilty of no misconduct the Judge may make an order allowing her a portion of the estate to the extent of that which would have gone to her had her husband died intestate leaving a widow and children; that is equivalent to one-third of his estate after paying all debts.

MORTGAGES (ON REAL ESTATE).—Must be registered in the proper land titles office and take priority according to the date of registration.

SALE OF GOODS AND STOPPAGE IN TRANSIT.—A contract for the sale of any goods of the value of $50 or upwards shall not be enforceable by action unless the buyer shall accept part of the goods so sold and actually receive the same or give something in earnest to bind the contract or in part payment or unless some note or memorandum in writing of the contract be made and signed by the party to be charged or his agent in that behalf. An unpaid seller has (a) a lien on the goods or right to retain them for the price while he is in possession of them; (b) in the case of insolvency of the buyer a right of stoppage of the goods in transit after he has parted with the possession of them; (c) a right of resale as limited by the Sale of Goods Act. Subject to the provisions of the Sale of Goods Act when the buyer of goods becomes insolvent the unpaid seller who has parted with the possession of the goods has the right of stopping them in transit, that is to say, he may resume possession of the goods as long as they are in the course of transit and may retain them until payment or tender of the price. (For conditional sales see lien notes).

SALE OF GOODS IN BULK.—Whenever traders, merchants, commission merchants or manufacturers make any sale or transfer of a stock of goods, wares or merchandise or part thereof out of the usual course of business or trade of the vendor or whenever substantially the entire stock in trade or an interest in the business or trade of the vendor is sold or conveyed it shall be deemed a sale of bulk, and it shall be the duty of the purchaser to demand and it shall be the duty of the vendor to furnish a statutory declaration setting forth all the creditors of the vendor, their addresses, the nature of their indebtedness, the amount of the same and when due. The sale or transfer shall be deemed to be fraudulent unless such declaration is obtained or unless the whole of the proceeds of such sale be in fact applied by the vendor in payment of all the creditors in full. The purchaser may, however, obtain a written consent of sixty per cent. of the creditors representing at least sixty per cent. of the total claims against the vendor or he may pay the whole of the consideration for such sale or transfer to a Trust Company authorized to act under the Assignment Act and such company shall distribute the same pro rata among all the creditors of the vendor.
